Sri Kanyaka Parameswari also known as Vasavi Mata is born to Kusumamba the Queen and her Husband Kusuma Sresti the king of Penugonda, on Vaisaka Suddha Dasami during 10th century AD , after performing Yagna worshipping Lord Siva (Nagareswara Swamy) and Lord Vishnu (Janardhana Swamy). Vasavi Matha born as one of the twins with her bother Virupaksha, was inclined towards art, architecture and music. When neighbouring King Vishnuvardan wanted to marry Vasavi and attacked Penugonda, Vasavi wanting to avoid bloodshed, revealed her true self as the incarnation of AdiParashakti, born to safeguard the Dignity of women, protect Dharma and practice Ahimsa. Declaring these words and with glittering radiance surpassing the brightness of the Sun, Vasavi Mata plunged in to the Holy Fire and became one with Lord Siva. Vasavi Matha's message being DHARMAM- SHEELAM-AHIMSA meaning DUTY-INTEGRITY-NONVIOLENCE. Virupaksha after Piligramage, under the guidance of Guru Baskaracharya, installed 101 LINGAS IN PENUGONDA, and Narendra installed a statue of VASAVI as a token of respect.
