Aditya Ravikanth – Vocal

Aditya Ravikanth has been learning Carnatic Music under the tutelage of Guru Smt. Tara Anand in Boston for more than 11 years. During these years, his Guru has instilled in him a passion for carnatic music and taught him to appreciate its innate beauty. Guru Tara's uncompromising standards have taught him the values of hard work and diligence. He looks forward to years of continued learning from her. Thanks to this rigorous training, he has won numerous prizes at Cleveland Thyagaraja Aradhana and CMANA, in the neraval, alapana, krithi, swaram and pallavi categories. He has performed several concerts in Chennai and in the New England area. Aditya is a Freshman at University of Chicago.

Rasika Murali Mohan - Violin

Rasika Murali Mohan is an accomplished violinist and vocalist with an illustrious musical lineage. She commenced vocal training with her mother, Boston's treasured Smt. Geetha Murali, and has been fortunate to be under the tutelage of the esteemed Smt. Tara Anand since age 7. Rasika has won numerous vocal and violin competitions held by prestigious music organizations such as the Cleveland Aradhana Committee and CMANA of New Jersey. She has also performed for several solo concerts, Bharathnatyam productions, and arangetrams recently in the New England area. Rasika currently teaches Carnatic vocal and violin at the Saikripa School of Music in both Norwood and Cambridge, MA. Professionally, she completed her masters in Speech Pathology from Boston University and is a practicing speech therapist in Beverly, MA.

Tarun Bangalore – Mridangam

Tarun has received his fundamental training on the mridangam from Dr. Pravin Sitaram since the age of 7. Tarun has also been getting intensive advanced training from Vidwan K.U.Jayachandra Rao of Bangalore for the past 9 years. He is currently a student at The Culinary Institute of America in Hyde Park, NY and will be graduating in December of 2018.
