

AIM FOR SEVA PRESENTS NANDA LALA

Saturday, September 8 at 5pm @ The Egg's Hart Theater

The Albany Chapter of AIM for Seva presents "Nanda Lala," a celebration of dance & music by renowned dance choreographer Smt Anitha Guha and her students from India on Saturday, September 8 at The Egg's Hart Theater in Albany. Admission is free and donations are welcome. All proceeds support rural children's education.

Nanda Lala is set to four styles of Indian music, six forms of Indian Classical dance, including Bharatanatyam, Kathak and folk; and songs in seven languages. Nandalala brings the splendor of the ever charming 'Night-Hued' Lord Krishna through the mellifluous compositions of legends in the Carnatic and Hindustani genre of Indian music.

This multilingual saga will chronicle the enthralling anecdotes of Lord Krishna's life right from his birth in jail, being separated from his parents, growing up as a cowherd boy, vanquishing demons one after another, to his time with the alluring Gopikas of Vrindavan who were drenched with love, his Gitopadesha and his role in the crux of the Kuruskshetra war between the Pandavas and the Kauravas which was fought to reinstate Dharma.

For information and to reserve your seats, go to: www.aimforsevausa.org/albany/ and support AIM for SEVA Albany chapter's 2018 fundraising goal to provide access to education to over 108 rural children in India.

Program trailer may be viewed at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tzMxc-URIA&feature=youtu.be>

AIM for SEVA Presents

Bharathanjali's
nandalala
A Nritya Natak

Concept & Choreography Smt. Anitha Guha

Six forms of Indian Dances
Bharatanatyam, Kathakali,
Mohiniattam, Kuchipudi, Kathak & Folk

Four Styles of Music
Carnatic, Hindustani, Abhang & Folk

Songs in Seven Languages

5:00 PM
September 08 2018
Hart Theater, The Egg
1 Empire State Plaza
Albany NY